About Mamalluca

Taking the meaning of Mamalluca “mother that welcomes”—we have chosen this name for the Chilean Film Festival—thus offering a space that welcomes, highlights and promotes the important cinematographic production of Chile—including documentaries and films. Our goal is not only to exhibit Chilean film production in the genres described and the talented directors, producers and actors, but also, to continue to showcase and promote the diverse cultures of Chile through films and to show the best of our country.

LA MENTIRITA BLANCA | THE LITTLE WHILE LIE(2017) (80 min.)

Director: Tomás Alzamora

Studio: Equeco

Debido a la falta de acontecimientos en un pequeño pueblo campesino, un fracasado periodista se ve forzado a inventar noticias para no perder su trabajo. Al convertirse en el reportero más popular de la región, deberá decidir entre seguir mintiendo y aumentar su fama, o contar la verdad y perderlo todo (Fuente: CineChile)

The film features a small-town journalist in southern Chile realizes he just ran out of good news so that he starts making gossips and fake stories in order to keep his job in the local newspaper he works for.

LA CHICA DEL VESTIDO ROJO Y EL SOMBRERO AMARILLO |

THE GIRL IN THE RED DRESS AND THE YELLOWHAT (2019) (12 min.)

Director: Alvaro Rozas

Studio: DespiertocFilms

Cada noche una enigmática chica de rojo y sombrero amarillo se lanza apasionadamente sobre los brazos de Pablo en la estación de trenes, sin embargo, él ama a su esposa.

Each evening, at the train station, a mysterious young woman wearing a red dress and a yellow hat, passionately throws herself to the arms of Pablo. However, he loves his wife.
